Dear All,

Special Person Morning Tea
In conjunction with the working bee tomorrow, we will be having a special person’s morning tea to celebrate Father’s Day. At 10am there will be an activity for students and their special person to do together, followed by a morning tea put on by Janet and Eden in celebration of School Ministry Week. Please let us know if you are unable to make it and we will make sure your child has a special buddy for the activity time.

Working Bee
We have many jobs up for grabs tomorrow - thank you in advance for all your help. There will be morning tea and lunch provided for all our wonderful workers.

- Painting the bare timber on the outside of the stone room
- Log boarder around the fruit trees
- Sand and paint outdoor benches
- Sorting through all the costume boxes and re-labelling the tubs
- Hop scotch lines to be re-painted
- Chopping wood
- Putting up shade cloth and timber decking on stone room
- Cleaning outside of kitchen and toilet block

3-7 EduBlog
Mr Rowley has started up his own class blog, parents should’ve received an email a couple of weeks ago with login instructions. When you get the chance, jump online and check it out. He will be using this space to keep families up to date with what is happening in his class. Eventually students will be posting their own work on the blog for you to have a look at.

Poonindie Sports Day
Thursday 25th September is our combined tabloid sports day with Poonindie and Pt. Neill. This will be held at Dorward Oval at North Shields starting at 9.45am. A couple of weeks ago I sent home food order forms for this day. Please return these with the correct money by the beginning of next week.

Book Week
This was a huge success last week – thank you to families for the effort you went to organising children’s costumes. As I said on Friday, you can never be lonely when you have a book – they can transport you to any place in the world and take you on many wonderful adventures. Book Week is all about instilling a love of reading into children’s (and adults) hearts, so thank you for your support.

Governing Council
On Monday night we had our Governing Council meeting – it was the best turn out we’ve had this year, thanks to those who came along. Listed below are some items we discussed
- The KESAB tidy schools judge Alex visited our school a couple of weeks ago and was very impressed with what she saw. Awards will be presented at the end of October.
- Details of centenary were discussed – P&F will be meeting on Monday 15th at 9am to discuss jobs and rosters for catering on the day. If you are unable to make this meeting please email Nikki to let her know what you’re happy to do on the day.

Next Centenary Committee meeting will be at the school next Thursday at 4.15pm.

Enjoy the rest of your week,

Sarah

The Reading Bug and how you can help your child catch it. by Paul Jennings

Difficult words

Glance through the book first and explain any hard words.

If you can do this in a fun, non-teacherly manner, it can be useful. Remember that reading time is meant to be fun time. Not unpleasant work.

And remember to pick the right book and set the reading time up so that the child will have a good chance of figuring out most of the difficult words.

Dear Ungarra Community Members

As I am sure you are all well aware the Ungarra Primary School is celebrating their Centenary over the October long weekend. Preparations are well under way and the Hall is also getting ready for the weekend with a working bee on the 9th September at 9am.

Some of the jobs that need to be undertaken are the construction of a garden shed to store chairs, etc., construction of cupboards for memorabilia storage, yard clean up, general tidy up and organisation of the hall.

As we are a very small group of about 6 or so, we could really use some help to get these jobs done, so if you could drop in for an hour or two it would be sincerely appreciated.

On the Saturday of the Centenary weekend we will be fundraising to keep the hall maintenance up to date to preserve it for the future generations of our community. We will be providing morning and afternoon tea at the hall and would like to ask you to help us out by donating items of cooking such as cakes, slice or scones. Items that can be frozen can be dropped to me at the school on Thursdays or Fridays and I can store them in my freezer until the weekend. Alternatively items can be brought along to the hall on the day. This is a huge undertaking for our small group of volunteers who work tirelessly to maintain our hall, and we really need your help to make sure we have enough food for so many visitors.

Please get behind your Hall/Progress Committee and give them a hand. You can contact me on tregellan@bigpond.com 868800880 or 0428605095 if you need any more information.
